Mould should be dealt with quickly as it can affect your health and damage property.
Mould only grows if it is watered, so the key to avoiding mould growth is condensation and moisture control.
Talk to your landlord for advice.